Rules of Advocacy

1. Know the Law
2. Stick to the facts
3. Use the opening
4. Reflect objectively
5. Think about the audience – know the Court
6. Acknowledge that which is obvious
7. Courage

The Hon Michael Kirby

“But in bending the mind of another human being, with the power of legal decision, to arguments successfully addressed which turn the tide and lead to forensic triumph – there can be few moments of human activity so rewarding. Certainly, there are few vocations that offer such excitement. That is why the skills of the advocate must be sharpened and improved. To avoid the moments of despair. To multiply the moments of deserved exhilaration.”
