

TropEco Interns Application Form

TropEco Interns make a significant contribution to sustainability at JCU. They gain skills and knowledge to implement sustainability programs at the University, in the workplace, and the community. By participating in the TropEco Interns program you receive certification for your efforts and join a select group of students making a difference towards a sustainable future.

Please fill in the following application form and email the completed form to tropeco@jcu.edu.au. One of our TropEco staff members will then contact you to discuss your Internship.

1. Your Name

2. Email

3. Phone

4. What JCU course are you enrolled in?

5. What campus are you studying at?
