

JCU “Fly like a Rock Challenge” Competition Terms and Conditions

1. Participating in this Competition constitutes an acceptance of these Terms and Conditions.
2. The "Promoter" is James Cook University, James Cook Drive, Douglas, Qld 4811. ABN 46 253 211 955.
3. To be eligible to enter this Competition, all participants must be Australian residents and aged between 12 and 18 years.
4. Employees of James Cook University are ineligible to enter.
5. Entrants are required to:
 - (a) register as a team of between 2 and 4 persons; and
 - (b) register their team by 5pm, Friday 11 August 2017 by completing and returning the fully completed Entry Forms to openday@jcu.edu.au.
6. All teams must be available to compete on Sunday 13th August 2017 from 11am at the James Cook University Townsville Campus Open Day.
7. All teams must be present for their assigned heat times which will be assigned one week prior to the Open Day. Should a team make it into the top five, the team will need to be present for the finals commencing at 2.30pm on 13th August 2017.
8. Teams will be required to invent a projectile in compliance the Competition Rules. The Promoter has the right to disqualify a team should an invention or a team not comply with the Competition Rules.
9. A panel of judges (convened by the Promotor) will award:
 - (a) a prize for the invention that flies the least distance; and
 - (b) a prize for the most creative invention.
10. The decision of the panel of judges as to the winner of the prizes is final and binding and no correspondence will be entered into in relation to the conduct of the Competition or otherwise.
11. The winners of the prizes will be announced at 3pm at the James Cook University Townsville Campus Open Day.
12. The prize for the invention that flies the least distance will be one night at Orpheus Island (including transfers from Cairns, two night's accommodation, breakfast, lunch and dinner for the team (maximum of four team members) and a supervising teacher (total value at approximately $2,000). The team and supervising teacher must be available to travel to Orpheus Island in September (date to be confirmed).
13. The prize for the invention that is the most creative will be a $50 Australian Geographic voucher for each member of the winning team.
14. The prizes are not transferable, refundable or exchangeable and cannot be taken for cash.
15. If a prize is unavailable, the Promoter, in its absolute discretion, reserves the right to substitute the prize with a prize of the equal value and/or specification.
16. If the use of a prize is subject to the terms and conditions of a third party (including validity period), any dispute in relation to those terms and conditions must be directed to that party and the Promoter has no responsibility for resolving such disputes.

17. The Promoter will publish the results of the Competition on the JCU Facebook page.
18. If this Competition is interfered with in any way or is not capable of being conducted as reasonably anticipated due to any reason beyond reasonable control of the Promoter, the Promoter reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to the fullest extent permitted by the law to (a) disqualify any individual entrant or team; or (b) subject to any written directions from a regulatory authority, to modify, suspend, terminate or cancel the Competition, as appropriate.
19. The Promoter is not responsible for any incorrect or inaccurate information, or for any of the equipment or programming associated with or utilised in this Competition, or for any technical error that may occur in the course of the administration of this Competition. The Promoter assumes no responsibility for any error, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, delay in operation or transmission, communications line failure, theft or destruction or unauthorised access to or alteration of entries.
20. To the fullest extent permitted by the law, the Promoter will not be liable for any death, injury, damages, expenses, or loss whatsoever (whether direct or inconsequential) to persons or property as a result of any person entering into the Competition or accepting or using any prize, including without limitation non-receipt of any prize and damage to any prize in transit.
21. Under the Information Privacy Act 2009 (Qld), the Promoter must tell entrants when it collects personal information about them and how it plans to use it. If an entrant chooses to enter or take part in this Competition, the entrant may be required to provide the Promoter with personal information such as the entrant's name, postcode, email address, mobile phone number. The Promoter will collect and use the entrant's personal information for the purpose of conducting the Competition.