

PRACTISING YOUR ENGLISH

Take an active approach to improving your English. If you engage actively in learning, your skills will improve much more quickly. There are many ways to use and sharpen your skills beyond just doing your assignments. Here are a few of them.

	What you need to know.....
1. Listening	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Use your lecture recordings in LearnJCU to improve your listening skills. If a recording or podcast is not available, ask your lecturer for permission to record your lectures. Once you have understood the content, use the recordings to familiarise yourself with the accent and pronunciation of each of your lecturers.</li><li>• Next time you open a document in PDF format, try listening to it while you read. If you do not know how to do this, search for 'how to listen to a PDF' online.</li><li>• Listen to online radio or podcasts at home or on your mobile phone. The Australian Broadcasting Corporation's Radio National explores a wide range of topics and current affairs daily. Most programs are podcast and many are transcribed. Listen to a program without reading the transcript, make some notes, then check the transcript to fill in any gaps in your listening. http://www.abc.net.au/radionational/rn-podcasting/</li><li>• You can also get an international perspective by listening to NPR from the USA or the BBC from the UK. http://www.npr.org/podcasts/organizations/1 http://www.bbc.co.uk/podcasts</li><li>• Watch some TED talks, short video presentations on a huge range of subjects. They are also a great place to learn presentation skills. https://www.ted.com/talks</li><li>• Use online dictionaries to hear words as well as read them. http://www.dictionary.com/</li></ul>
2. Speaking	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Take every opportunity you can to engage in conversation daily. JCU offers a wide range of clubs and societies you can join while you study. http://www.jcusa.edu.au/campus_life/clubs_&amp;_societies/list_of_clubs_&amp;_societies.php</li><li>• There are also a range of free fitness activities that you can join in both Cairns and Townsville. http://www.cairns.qld.gov.au/esplanade/whats-on/active-living</li></ul>
