

Legal Studies Conference

Mabo Decision – 30 Years On

JCU Cairns, Nguma-Bada campus, Smithfield
Friday 12 August 2022

8.30 am	Schools arrive	11.20–11.40 am	Mr Stephen Grace Managing Lawyer, Community and Health Justice Partnerships, LawRite, Cairns Good Law: using the law and our legal system to resolve everyday legal issues
9 (sharp)–9.05 am	Welcome Dr Jamie Fellows, Head of Law JCU	11.40 am–12.30 pm	Lunch
9.05–9.10 am	Welcome to Country	12.30–12.50 pm	Ms Natalie Keys Senior Prosecutor, Prosecution Services, Far North District (Cairns), Legal Division
9.10–9.15 am	Introduction Ms Mariah Mills, Law Student JCU	12.50–1.10 pm	Mr Shaune Williams Barrister-at-Law, Cairns
9.15–9.55 am	Keynote address Commissioner C'Zarke Maza Office of the Commissioner (Meriba Omasker Kaziw Kazip)	1.10–1.30 pm	Ms Michelle Cioffi Principal Lawyer Mr Parky Werrick Legal Officer Ms Michelle Friday-Mooka Senior Community and Stakeholder Engagement Officer, Cape York Land Council (CYLC), Cairns
9.55–10.15 am	Mr Simon Bright Regional Manager/Legal Practitioner, Aboriginal Torres Strait Islander Legal Service (ATSILS) Cairns	1.30–1.35 pm	Closing remarks Dr Jamie Fellows
10.15–10.40 am	Refreshment break	1.35 pm	Close
10.40–11.00 am	Mr Kaleb Mabo Anthropology & Archaeology Student – JCU Cairns, Grandson of Eddie Koiki and Bonita Mabo
11.00–11.20 am	Naim Santoso-Miller Solicitor, Environmental Defenders Office, Cairns

Koiki Mabo and the continuing plaintiffs, Reverend David Passi and James Rice, with lawyer Bryan Keon-Cohen in 1989. Image courtesy of Yarra Bank Films.

jcu.edu.au

JAMES COOK
UNIVERSITY
AUSTRALIA