

Advisor Training and Research Integrity Overview Workshop

Ensuring your effectiveness as an advisor of Higher Degree by Research candidates

Date:

Location:

Facilitators: Professor Helene Marsh, Dean of Graduate Research
Dr Liz Tynan, Senior Lecturer and Coordinator, Student Academic Support

8:45am	Tea and Coffee
9:00am	Introduction Advising HDR Candidates: The International, National and Institutional Context Helene Marsh
10:00am	Morning tea
10:15 am	JCU Policies and Procedures for Research Education Helene Marsh and Liz Tynan
12:15pm	Lunch (45 minutes)
1:00pm	Research Integrity with particular emphasis on HDR matters Helene Marsh and Liz Tynan
2:30 pm	Supervisory styles Helene Marsh
3:15pm	Afternoon tea
3:30pm	e-Resources for JCU HDR Advisors Including the Epigeum Supervisor Module and what you have to do to finalise your advisor registration Liz Tynan
4:30 pm	Close

Please note: Category A staff are required to attend the full day – 9am to 4:30pm. Category B Advisors are required to attend from 9am to 2:30pm. For more information, please refer to the GRS Website: HDR Advisor Training Program.

Green shaded sessions	Category A & B Advisors are required to attend these sessions
White shaded sessions	Category A Advisors are required to attend these sessions