

What can I do with a Planning degree?

Create sustainable cities and urban spaces that consider our social, environmental, and economic wellbeing.

Future careers

- Urban Planner
- Planning Policy Officer
- Heritage Consultant
- Traffic and Transport Planner
- Property Developer.

Future growth

- The demand for planners is growing in line with Australia's population. Changes in demographics, technology and the environment will need planners to help accommodate the shifting priorities of communities and the economy.
- planning.org.au

Did you know

- Town planning was a medal event in the four Olympic Games between 1928 and 1948.

planetizen.com/node/87885/going-gold-when-town-planning-was-olympic-competition

Median wage

- The average salary for an Urban Planner is A$74,630 per year.

payscale.com/research/AU/job=Urban_Planner

Perks of the job

- Use your creativity
- Support urban renewal
- Improve access to essential services
- Influence policy and development trends.

Honour board

- Frederick Law Olmsted – Co-designer of Central Park in New York City.
- Jane Jacobs - Urban writer and community-based activist.

JAMES COOK UNIVERSITY
AUSTRALIA

Planning

Subjects to focus on

- English (Units 3/4, C) - required.

Learn more

Scan the QR code to learn all about Planning.

Scan to view
Planning at JCU video.

“ Planning involves people, place and the environment, both urban and natural. It's a little bit of everything and that's why I love it. Studying planning at JCU with a tropical focus puts students in an area of rapid change, incredible social and economic challenge and innovation. ”

Sarah Gibson
BACHELOR OF PLANNING

jcu.edu.au

CRICOS Provider Code 00117J