

INFORMATION – APPLICATION FOR WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT FINANCIAL PENALTY (Domestic Students Only)

Remission of HELP Debt and/or Refund of Upfront Tuition Fees

Application and timeframes for acceptance

Commonwealth Government legislation (The Higher Education Support Act 2003) and University policy stipulate that, under special circumstances, students may apply for a remission of Higher Education Loan Program (HELP) debt (FEE-HELP or HECS-HELP) and/or, refund of student contribution amounts and tuition fees, if paid up-front.

Students have up to 12 months after the date of withdrawal, or, if not withdrawn, 12 months after the end of the study period for the subject to make their request and provide appropriate evidence to support their case.

Please note: A lack of knowledge or understanding of requirements for applying for a remission or refund is not a valid reason for applying outside of these timeframes. The Remission and Refund Officer has the discretion to waive the 12 month time requirements if they are satisfied that the applicant has supplied sufficient evidence to determine that the application could not be made within the time limits.

What are “special circumstances”?

James Cook University must be satisfied that special circumstances applied to the student were:

- beyond the student’s control; and
- did not make the full impact until on or after census date; and
- made it impracticable for the student to complete the requirements of the subject/s in the period during which the person undertook, or was to undertake the subject.

In all cases, the circumstances must have a significant impact on the student and their ability to complete the unit of study.

Circumstances which make it impracticable for the student to complete the requirements of the unit include:

- Medical Circumstances
- Family/Personal Circumstances
- Employment Related Circumstances
- Course Related Circumstances
