

What can I do with a Pharmacy degree?

Want to change people's lives and make a positive difference to the health of communities? As a Pharmacy graduate you can look forward to a wide range of career opportunities in a growing industry.

Future careers

- Hospital and community pharmacist
- Australian Defence Force pharmacist
- Pharmacy practice management
- Government health services and regulatory bodies
- Pharmaceutical industries.

Future growth

- Over 80% of all medicines currently dispensed are to those aged 65 or over. By 2036 this same age group will represent 25% of the population, indicating solid future growth for the pharmacy industry*.

*The Future of the Pharmacy Industry
MICHAEL RHODES - 2017

Did you know

- Henri Nestlé, founder of nutrition, health and wellness giant Nestlé, was a pharmacist's assistant and in 1839 developed one of the first infant baby formulas.

Median wage

- The average salary for a Pharmacist is $72,421* (AUD) per year.

* www.payscale.com/research/AU/job

Perks of the job

- Helping people in your community
- Working with other health professionals
- Contributing to the recovery of serious illnesses.

Famous faces

- Sir Alexander Fleming – discovered penicillin
- Milton Blake – created world's first commercial sunscreen.

JAMES COOK
UNIVERSITY
AUSTRALIA

Pharmacy

Subjects to focus on

- English (Units 3/4,C) – required
- Chemistry (3/4,C) – required
- Mathematical Methods (3/4,C) – required

Learn more

Scan the QR code to learn more about JCU Pharmacy.

Scan to watch 'This is Pharmacy at JCU' video.

“ I've loved where my career has taken me. It is just so rewarding to be here for our patients when they are going through a tough time. At the end of the day, that's why we do it. It's been great. ”

Tegan Stark

JCU PHARMACY GRADUATE

jcu.edu.au

CRICOS Provider Code 00117J