

WHAT TYPE OF ETHICS APPLICATION DO I NEED.

Human Ethics application form

Category 1 and 2 studies are considered low/negligible risk and require you to attach the low/negligible risk checklist.

Category 3-6 are considered to have a risk of distress or a vulnerable population

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander ethics application form

Are you staff or student?

STUDENTS

STAFF

STUDENTS

Once you have written your application, have your Supervisor read and sign the application. The application is now ready to send to the ethics advisor for review

STAFF

Once you have written your application please sign on the signature page. The application is now ready to send to the ethics advisor for review

The list of ethics advisor can be found here. Once the ethics advisor has reviewed and signed off it needs to go to your College Dean/Delegate for signing. (Please note that some colleges have internal ethics submission procedures for submitting ethics so please check with your college office)

Ethics approvals from an external ethics committee.

Complete the cover sheet external HREC approvals form found here. If you are a student you will need to acquire your Supervisor/s signature.

- Attach with the coversheet the following documents:
- External ethics application including any appendices
 - Comments from the external ethics committee and the response to the comments (if applicable)
 - External ethics approval

Once all documents are collated please send to the Dean/Delegate for signing. Once they have signed please provide a hard copy of the documents to the Research Office.

Now that you have all the signatures required please email one electronic copy (in one PDF file) to ethics@jcu.edu.au. Please also provide one hard copy for low/negligible risk projects (category 1&2) including the checklist and 2 hard copies for higher risk projects (category 3-6) and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander applications to the Research Office.