

Thursday Island Bootcamp -You're Invited

Work through the process of completing an assessment:

- Understanding the assessment criteria
- Finding Information
- Critical reading and note taking
- Writing and referencing

Come and learn essential skills to help you succeed at university. Talk to a Learning Advisor, a Librarian and an Indigenous Mentor.

Wednesday 5th August, 9am-3pm
Coffee, morning tea and lunch provided.

Who should attend: everyone studying at JCU

Please confirm your attendance with your TI lecturer or email the librarian, bronwen.forster@jcu.edu.au

If you have any questions about the Bootcamp or have specific requests for learning skills please contact Bronwen on the email above or phone: 07 4232 1035

From a previous participant: Attending “helped in my understanding of referencing, using the JCU website, structuring essay and how to write a paragraph. Just researching and getting information, where to go to find certain information.”
