

HDR Advisor update August 2020

Advisor of the Year Awards Announced at 3MT Competition

Please register to attend the 3MT competition from 11 -12noon on 9 September 2020. Not only to hear from our wonderful Candidates but also to hear the winners of the 2020 Advisor of the Year awards.

HDR Advisor Professional Development Semester 2

All activities for the second half of the year can be found here. Invitations will be sent out via email progressively through the semester. If you can't attend an event, and it was a presentation rather than an interactive event then a recording will be made available via the HDR Advisor webpage, LearnJCU site and Support our Supervisors Teams site.

Special events coming up later this semester include a Qualitative Methods Masterclass Series with Professor David Silverman and exceptional leader Professor Bette Jacobs speaking at our Semesterly Woman Advisors' Network. More sessions are also planned for Early Career Researchers.

Becoming an Advisor

If you wish to join the HDR Advisor Register or change your status on the register please visit the Becoming an Advisor site for detailed requirements. Included is how to become a Secondary, Primary, Primary Advanced or Mentoring advisor as well as Chair of Panel.

Becoming a Primary Advanced Advisor

Just a quick note about the new advisor level. You can become a Primary Advanced Advisor if you are registered as an advisor, are research active and have at least one completion in the last 2 years of a PhD or Masters candidate. As A Primary Advanced Advisor you do not require an Advisor Mentor on your panel. To complete the short written task and complete the request to Elevate you status please click here.

Support our Supervisors Teams site

If you would like to get regular updates on events and resources for advisors please email to request access.

Scholarship of Supervision – Publishing about your Practice

If you are considering writing about your advisory practice please visit the Advisor LibGuide where you may find useful resources to support your write up. If you discover a resource or would like additional resources added please email and let us know and we will try to assist.
