

First Year

Know yourself and explore your options
... be curious and open to new ideas

Develop your Career Action Plan by using our resources and activities to set and achieve your career goals. Ask for support – we're here to help you take charge of your career.

Explore your options

Boost your motivation and broaden your horizons

- Connect with our service – our website has resources and programs to help, and follow our JCU Careers Facebook page for daily tips, info and opportunities.
- Research career opportunities – search current vacancies for ideas, ask your lecturers, follow organisations and professional associations online. Useful sites include: joboutlook.gov.au, graduateopportunities.com, seek.com.au
- Start identifying your skills, interests and values. The JCU Career Development Program has Self Understanding modules that can help.
- Be future oriented – read about innovations, predictions, forecasts and the entrepreneurial nature of future work.
- Accept that you won't have it all figured out yet – building a career takes time.

Start networking

Network to identify career opportunities

- Attend the annual JCU Careers Fair and other employer events to explore career options and meet industry experts.
- Be involved in university life – get to know your lecturers, tutors, student mentors, and fellow students – they will be valuable contacts.
- Join your relevant student club (listed on the JCUSA website).
- Establish a professional online presence. Create a LinkedIn profile – we can assist.

Develop your work skills

Employers value transferrable skills like customer service, teamwork and leadership gained through study, extra-curricular activities and all work settings

- Check JCU CareerHub regularly for part time, casual, vacation and volunteer opportunities – build your skills.
- Understand what employability means for your industry – what are the preferred transferrable skills and attributes? See graduateemployability.com for details.
- Complete the Introduction to Key Skills and Attributes module in our Develop an Enterprising Mindset online program
- Update your resume so it's ready at short notice – identify your current skills and experience and what you need to develop before graduating – we can assist.

Aim for good results

- It demonstrates competency, hard work and commitment
